[2] Common Issues: The same Board members were in attendance throughout the week and the Parties were represented by the same individuals. Many of the issues, arguments, questions and responses were common throughout. At the request of the Parties and with the concurrence of the Board, those commonalities were carried forward from the hearing where they were first raised to subsequent hearings, without being restated in full in each hearing or in each written decision. For the purpose of this Complaint, common issues from File No's 68196 and 66805, Decisions 1825/2012-P and 1818/2012-P were carried forward.

[3] S. 299, MGA: In each of the Complaints, the Complainant referenced information related to s. 299 of the Act. In each case, the Complainant confirmed that there was no claim that the Respondent was in default with respect to the requested disclosure.

[4] Confidentiality: In all but one of the Complaints, the Complainant, in writing by way of the transmittal page on the various documents, stated that there were pages within those submissions that were confidential and that "MUST remain out of the public domain." The Board advised the Complainant that Complaint Hearings are public hearings and that there was no mechanism in place by which some documentation could be kept from the public domain unless the Complainant did not enter it into evidence. In all cases, the Complainant chose to submit the documents into evidence in support of the Complaint

Property Description:

[5] The property under Complaint is a 5.17 acre parcel, located at 4300 26 St. NE in the Horizon Industrial area. Its land use classification is Industrial General (I-G). It contains one single-tenanted warehouse, constructed in 2000, with a total assessable area of 110,944 square feet (sq.ft.). The total amount of finished space is 13 per cent. It is assessed using the Sales Comparison approach to value at $97.76 per sq.ft.

Issues:

[6] Is the 2012 assessment too high when tested against the application of various valuation approaches and assessment tests?

Complainant's Requested Value:

[7] The Complainant requested that the assessment be reduced to $9,430,000

Board's Decision in Respect of Each Matter or Issue:

1. Assessment to Sales Ratio:

[8] The Complainant advised that she had extracted 164 sales of individual warehouses from the City's list of non-residential sales covering the period between July 2008 and June 2011. From this data, she calculated the minimum, maximum, median and mean, time adjusted assessment to sales ratios. She identified the coefficients of dispersion and variation of these ratios. The Complainant contended that it is the position of the International Association of Assessing Officers (IAAO) that "the overall ratios between the various groupings" cannot be more than 5 per cent. The Complainant said that the analysis she performed indicated that the indicated ratios had exceeded that limit. The Complainant further quoted an IAAO document as follows: ". Ratio statistics cannot be used to judge the level of appraisal of an individual parcel".

[9] The entirety of the City's list of sales was in evidence but the Complainant's selected list and analysis were not. Without the analysis that supports the Complainant's conclusions, it is not possible to form an opinion on the results.

[10] In any event, it is not the Board's role to rule on the validity of the Respondent's asset range. Matters Relating to Assessment and Taxation Regulation AR 220/2004 (MRAT), s.10 in particular, governs the quality standards and procedures established through the Alberta Assessment Quality Minister's Guidelines and s. 293 of the Act.

[11] The Complainant's position on the assessment to sales ratio carried little weight in the Board's deliberations on the merits of the Complaint.

2. Sales Comparison:

[12] The Complainant provided four sales comparables. The one at 2305 22 St. was selected by her as the closest to the subject but noted that it would require an adjustment for size. The building is considerably smaller as is the parcel size. It was sold in 2008 but no documentation of the sale was provided by the Complainant. It was assessed at $98 per sq.ft. as was the subject. The Complainant suggested that, when adjusted, a rate of $93 per sq.ft. would be appropriate but did not provide any support for that adjustment. Applying the requested rate of $93 to the subject property produces an assessment of $10,317,792.

[13] The Board noted that another of the comparables at 930 64 Av. NE was much closer in the key factors although a little larger and older by 3 years. It had a sale close to the valuation date that was time adjusted to $105 per sq.ft. and was assessed at $104 sq.ft. versus $98 for the subject.

[14] The Respondent also submitted 930 64 Av as a good comparable and, additionally, provided evidence of a sale of the property under complaint that occurred within 10 days of the July 1, 2011 valuation date. It sold in conjunction with an adjacent property for a total of $25,600,000. The owner's agent responded to a City Sales Questionnaire and declared that the subject parcel traded for $11,300,000 and declared that it was an arms-length transaction. The Respondent also noted that one of the Complainant's comparables was a non-arms length sale and therefore invalid.

[15] The Complainant also charted the four properties on p.15 of C1 and included an "Adjustment Summary" which, despite an additional explanation requested by the Board, was not comprehensible either in its calculation or its results.

[16] In reviewing the merits of the Complaint based on the Sales Approach, the Board placed the most weight on the common sale at 930 64 Av NE and the recent sale of the subject.

3. Cost Approach:

[17] The Complainant provided a summary report for the building using Marshall & Swift (M&S) and added a land value using the City's rates to arrive at an assessed value of $10,030,766, very close to the Sales Comparison approach requested by the Complainant. The detail of the inputs and calculations was not provided. The building indicated 100% Storage Warehouse. The Complainant averred that M&S allows between 3 to 12 per cent finished space within warehouses and that no adjustment was required for the additional 1 per cent of office space.

[18] The Respondent noted that the Complainant's approach is arbitrary and doesn't correctly reflect the Marshall & Swift input parameters. Neither Party produced M&S documentation.

[19] In the absence of more detailed calculations and text from Marshall & Swift, the Board found that the Complainant had insufficient evidence to support the requested assessment.

4. Income Approach:

[20] The Complainant's request for an assessment of $9,430,000 is based on the Income Approach using actual rent rates of $6.38 per sq.ft., a vacancy rate of 0 per cent and a capitalization rate (cap rate) of 7.50 per cent.

The requested cap rate was derived from the sales of four properties over 100,000 sq.ft., [21] two of which are located in the north-east and two in the south-east. The sales are supported by RealNet, and/or Alberta Data Search and/or Land Titles Transfer documentation.

The Complainant used actual rent rates at the time of sale for each property. The [22] supporting rent rolls are partly redacted, or incomplete, or charted and are not the actual roll. The Complainant also showed rent rates in the area and summarized these on p.122 of C1. These leases included properties at the Calgary International Airport. The Respondent contended that these were not typical in that the land is owned by the Airport and leased to the developer of the building who, in turn, leases the space to a tenant. She said the rents are structured differently than they would be in a typical warehouse situation but had no documentation to support that assertion other than a written statement in R1 at page 87.

[23] The Complainant then applied a typical vacancy rate of 4 per cent based, it appears, on third party reporting of city-wide averages. However, in calculating the Net Operating Income (NOI) for the subject, the Complainant used either a 5 per cent or 0 per cent vacancy rate as opposed to the 4 per cent rate used in formulating the overall cap rate. She stated that she knew the rate is higher in the north-east.

The cap rate analysis did not seem to account for other factors that would normally be [24] used in generating an (NOI).

[25] It is the Board's opinion that there must be consistency between the way a rate is formulated and the way that it is applied to the property under Complaint. In this case, the Complainant has not shown that the cap rate study is properly supported, nor has she demonstrated that it has been consistently applied. The Board, therefore, places no weight on the proposed valuation derived from the Income Approach.

Board's Decision and Reasons:

[26] In reviewing the Complainant's Sales Approach argument, the Board found that the property that was deemed by her to be the best sale actually supported the assessment. The Board also found that a recent and very timely sale of the subject was the best indicator of value. The July 11, 2011 sale of the subject was for an amount in excess of the 2012 assessment.

[27] While the Board does not rule on one valuation method over another, it recognizes that the Cost approach is generally applied to special purpose buildings not, as in this case, very standard and typical warehouse properties. Regardless of how that issue might have been determined, the evidence advanced on the costing of this property was not sufficiently supported, given the issues raised by the Respondent. Additionally, the Board noted that the Cost approach closely mirrored the actual assessment.

As noted above, the Complainant was not able to challenge the assessment on the [28] Income approach. The Board takes its guidance from Westcoast Transmission Company Limited v. Assessor for Area 9 (Vancouver) 1987 BCSC 235 which says, in part:

"I stated above that the concepts used, in developing capitalization rates for application to the subject, should be used consistently. Thus it makes no sense to develop a capitalization rate on one set of assumptions about long-term vacancy rates, long-term rents, and long-term expenses, and then apply that rate to the income of the subject property that is not derived in the same way.

CARB 1824/2012-P

The choice of a vacancy rate goes directly into the calculation of gross income, from which the appraiser then deducts expenses to arrive at an estimate of net income. All of these factors, for consistency, should be used in the same manner as they were used in the study of comparables which resulted in the development of the capitalization rate. To do otherwise is to offend appraisal theory, and is likely to produce a mistaken result."

[29] Finally, although not documented above, the Complainant raised the argument that, once the Complainant has established a prima facie case, the onus shifts to the Respondent – that the Complainant is only required to cast doubt on the assessment and is not required to prove what the correct and equitable assessment should be. The Complainant also stated that unless the Respondent provides direct proof that the Complainant's evidence is in error then it is deemed to be correct.

[30] The Board has difficulty accepting the latter part of this argument but that is not relevant here. What is relevant is that, in the Board's opinion, the Complainant did not establish a prima facia case. Accordingly, the Complaint failed.

Board's Decision:

[31] The 2012 Assessment is confirmed at $10,840,000

DATED AT THE CITY OF CALGARY THIS 1 DAY OF Dctober 2012.
