Next Step

Our goal is to continue to share important information on a monthly basis on the housing market trends.

OVERVIEW

Welcome to the Housing and Urban Affairs' (HUA) Key Indicators Report. This marks our fourth issue of the monthly report, launched in June 2008. The report covers the latest housing market trends.

Alberta's economic and population growth has resulted in pressures that are unique to urban centres, which is affecting the quality of life for Albertans. This growth has increased pressures on physical infrastructure and social services. Urban municipalities have new roles to meet future challenges such as urban social issues related to affordable housing and homelessness and ensuring their communities have capacity to remain sustainable into the future. The Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs has an opportunity to provide leadership to respond to the unique needs in their communities.

Highlights

- The number of homeless in Calgary in 2008 has risen 18 percent in the past two years to slightly more than 4,000 people. The full report of the Biennial Count of Homeless Persons in Calgary: May 14, 2008 can be downloaded at http://www.calgary.ca/docgallery/bu/cns/homelessness/2008\_count\_full\_report.pdf
- The latest count of homeless people in Edmonton took place on October 21, 2008. The count was conducted by 220 volunteers and is based on a street count and agencies providing emergency shelter. The full report will be available on November 25, 2008 at: <http://www.homewardtrust.ca/index.php>
- The count is conducted every two years. In 2006, the count for homeless people in Edmonton was 2,618, an increase of almost 20 percent over 2004 figures.

Key Indicators is now available for download from the ministry's internet site at: www.housing.alberta.ca

The Policy and Urban Affairs Division would like to thank everyone for their assistance and insight in the development of this report.

HOUSING MARKET TRENDS

HOUSING STARTS – Across Alberta, total housing starts in the seven largest urban centres declined by 43 percent, from 2,931 units in October 2007 to 1,682 units in 2008. Increased activity in Wood Buffalo and Grande Prairie was offset by lower production in Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat and Red Deer.

<sup>1</sup> "Single-Detached" dwelling (also referred to as "Single") is a building containing only one dwelling unit, which is completely separated on all sides from any other dwelling or structure. Includes link homes, where two units may share a common basement wall but are separated above grade. Also includes cluster-single developments.

<sup>2</sup> The term "Multiple" dwelling includes all other types of dwellings, i.e., Semi-detached (also referred as semi) is one of two dwellings located side-by-side in a building with no other structure, Row (Townhouse), Apartment and other commonly known as stacked townhouses, duplexes, triplexes, double, duplexes and row duplexes.

RESALE MARKET – According to the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the resale housing market in Alberta was stable in October 2008, despite all the volatility in the stock market. Albertans looking to buy homes have the power to negotiate now because of a glut of resale home listings and a shrinking new home order sheet.
